Slattery Student Program 2022

31 Jan 2022 - 25 Feb 2022

Kick start your property career!

What is it?

The Slattery Student Program is a paid four-week program held nationally. Opportunities are available across our Brisbane, Melbourne, Perth and Sydney offices.

The program will run from 31 January 2022 to 25 February 2022.

Who can apply?

Ideal for enthusiastic, committed, passionate and inquisitive property and construction students looking for an opportunity to experience professional services in the property industry.

The program reflects Slattery's commitment to diversity, by recruiting all students, no matter their gender, nationality or lifestyle choice.

Aboriginal and Indigenous students are strongly encouraged to apply for this program.

Open to students of all years.

Why should you apply?

Get your foot in the door, and experience all facets of professional services in the property industry!

At Slattery we are committed to...

- Giving students a start to their career and helping them secure a permanent position after graduation
- Being an employer of choice and attracting the best talent
- Creating better community outcomes through the built environment
- Contributing to a more reconciled Australia through our Reconciliation Action Plan 'Innovate'

What our students have to say...

“The Student Program offered me the opportunity to integrate workplace experience with university study. The program enabled me not only to understand the built environment quickly but also feel supported. My professional skills were improved through the exposure to a range of projects across various sectors. The open, inclusive and supportive people at Slattery, along with the diversified company culture also encouraged my confidence and personal development.”

Hailey Zhai
Student QS, Melbourne

“Slattery’s Student Program was an incredible opportunity for me to combine my studies in architecture and construction and be able to apply it in the real world. The guidance and support of all the staff, ranging from administration to other students and directors alike in my academic and professional development has been outstanding. It really highlights the company’s desire for me to succeed within the industry.”

Hasan Waqar
Student QS, Sydney
