Slattery Work Experience Program

Property and Construction

For First Nations High School Students

Slattery's (Warrang) Sydney Art Collection

*Are you interested in learning more about the construction industry?
Are you a First Nations high school student based in Melbourne?*

What should you expect?

Our week long work experience program is designed to give you a taste of what working across the different areas of the property & construction industry could be like.

As part of the program you will get a brief overview of the various areas of our business, including quantity surveying, site work, marketing, construction design, people & culture management, finance, administration & more.

Our placements are designed to suit your timeframes, and your interests. This placement will be paid, as per your schools work experience guidelines and your interests.
