

Slattery Student Program

What it is:

The Slattery Student Program is a paid four-week program held nationally. Opportunities are available across our Meeanjin, Boorloo, Naarm and Warrang offices.

Who can apply:

Ideal for enthusiastic, committed, passionate and inquisitive property and construction students looking for an opportunity to experience professional services in the property industry.

The program reflects Slattery's commitment to diversity by recruiting all type of individuals no matter their gender, nationality or lifestyle choice.

Open to students of all years.

Why should you apply:

The program features structured learning and gives students exposure to Slattery's business model – through site visits, technical training, design and client meetings, business development activities and staff interaction.
